

Welcome to the DNC2015 Newsletter!

We are pleased to introduce to you the first issue of the DNC Newsletter. In the DNC Newsletter, you can find the latest news on the Dresden Nexus Conference 2015. In this first issue, we provide information about early bird enrolment, the preliminary session programme, an overview of submissions received during our call for abstracts and more. We hope you find this newsletter interesting and informative, and we encourage you to disseminate the Dresden Nexus Conference within your networks!

What's New

Early bird enrolment is now open

During early bird enrolment, special rates apply if you enrol by 15 January 2015. The fee for students is EUR 50 and the fee for all other participants is EUR 100. After the deadline, fees will be increased to EUR 100 and EUR 150 respectively.

Enrol now at <http://www.dresden-nexus-conference.org/enrolment.html>

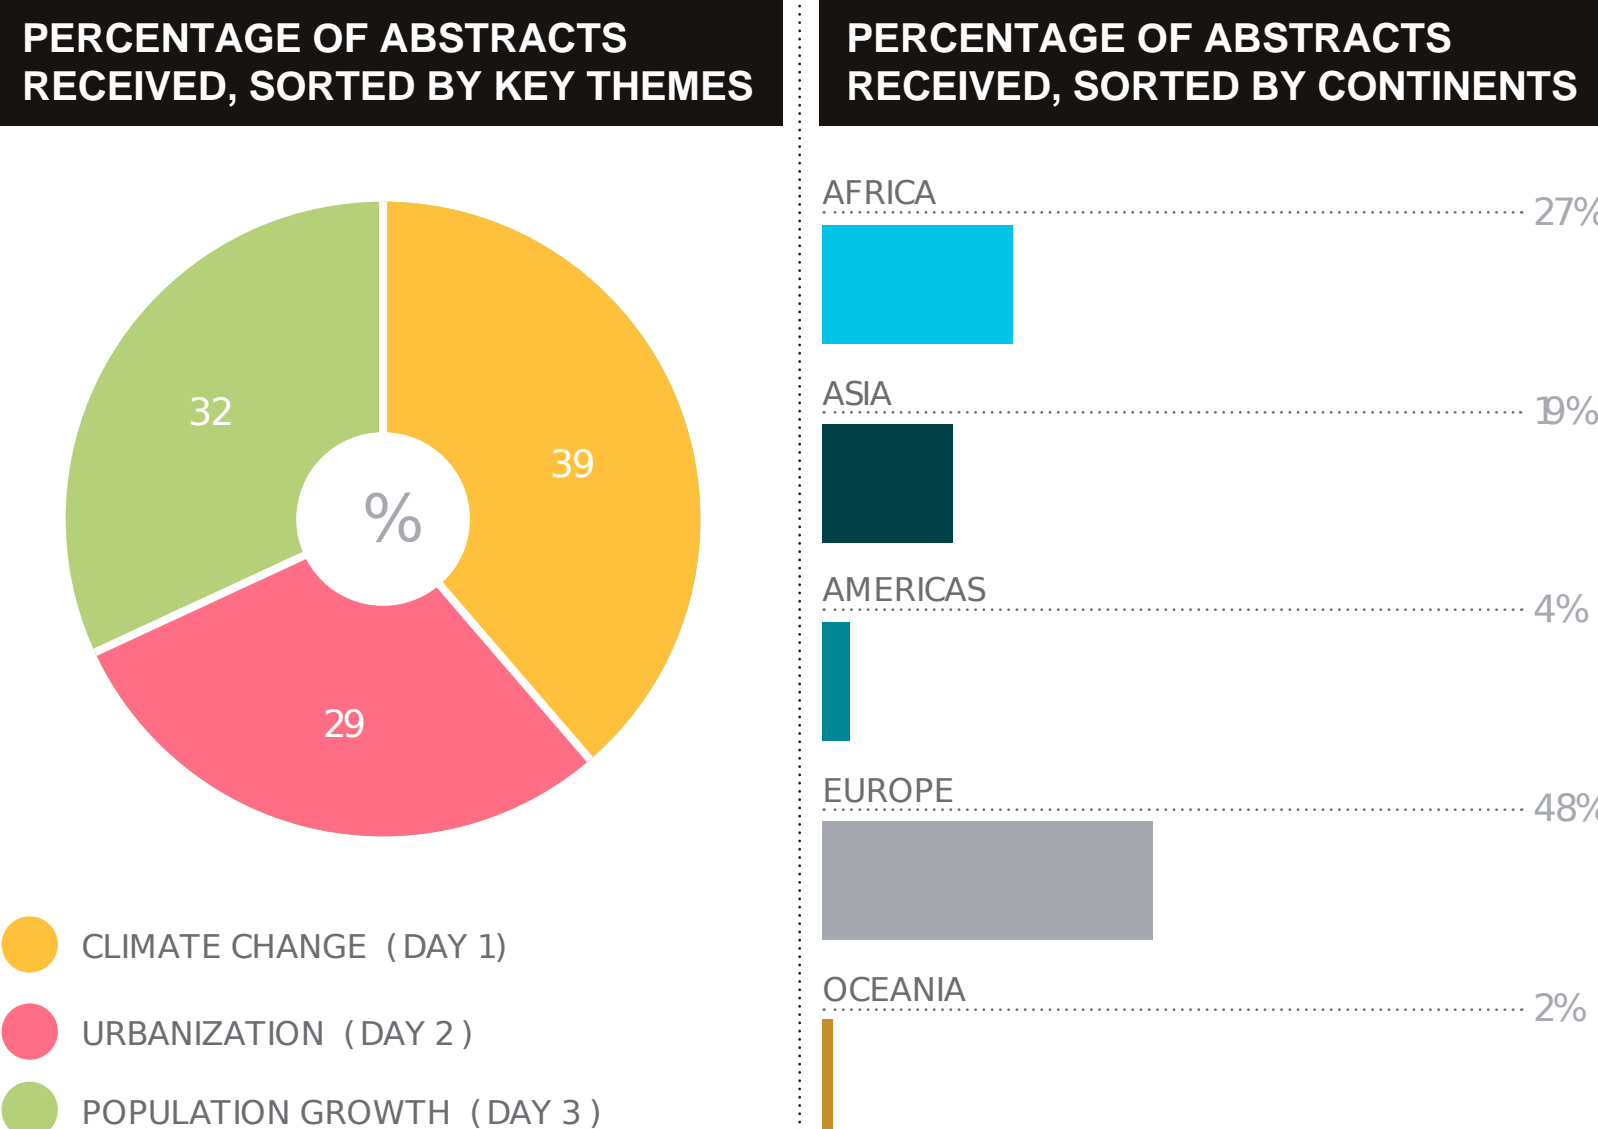

In addition to ensuring your participation in DNC2015, enrolment will allow us to facilitate your visa application by providing you with an invitation letter. Regarding accommodation, please note that the hotels near the conference venue are providing us with special group rates, though availability is limited.

Preliminary session programme posted

We are excited to announce the preliminary conference programme, which is now available at <http://www.dresden-nexus-conference.org/session.html>

Overview of Abstracts Received

During our call for abstracts for oral and poster presentations (18 sessions), we received a significant number of submissions from around the world.

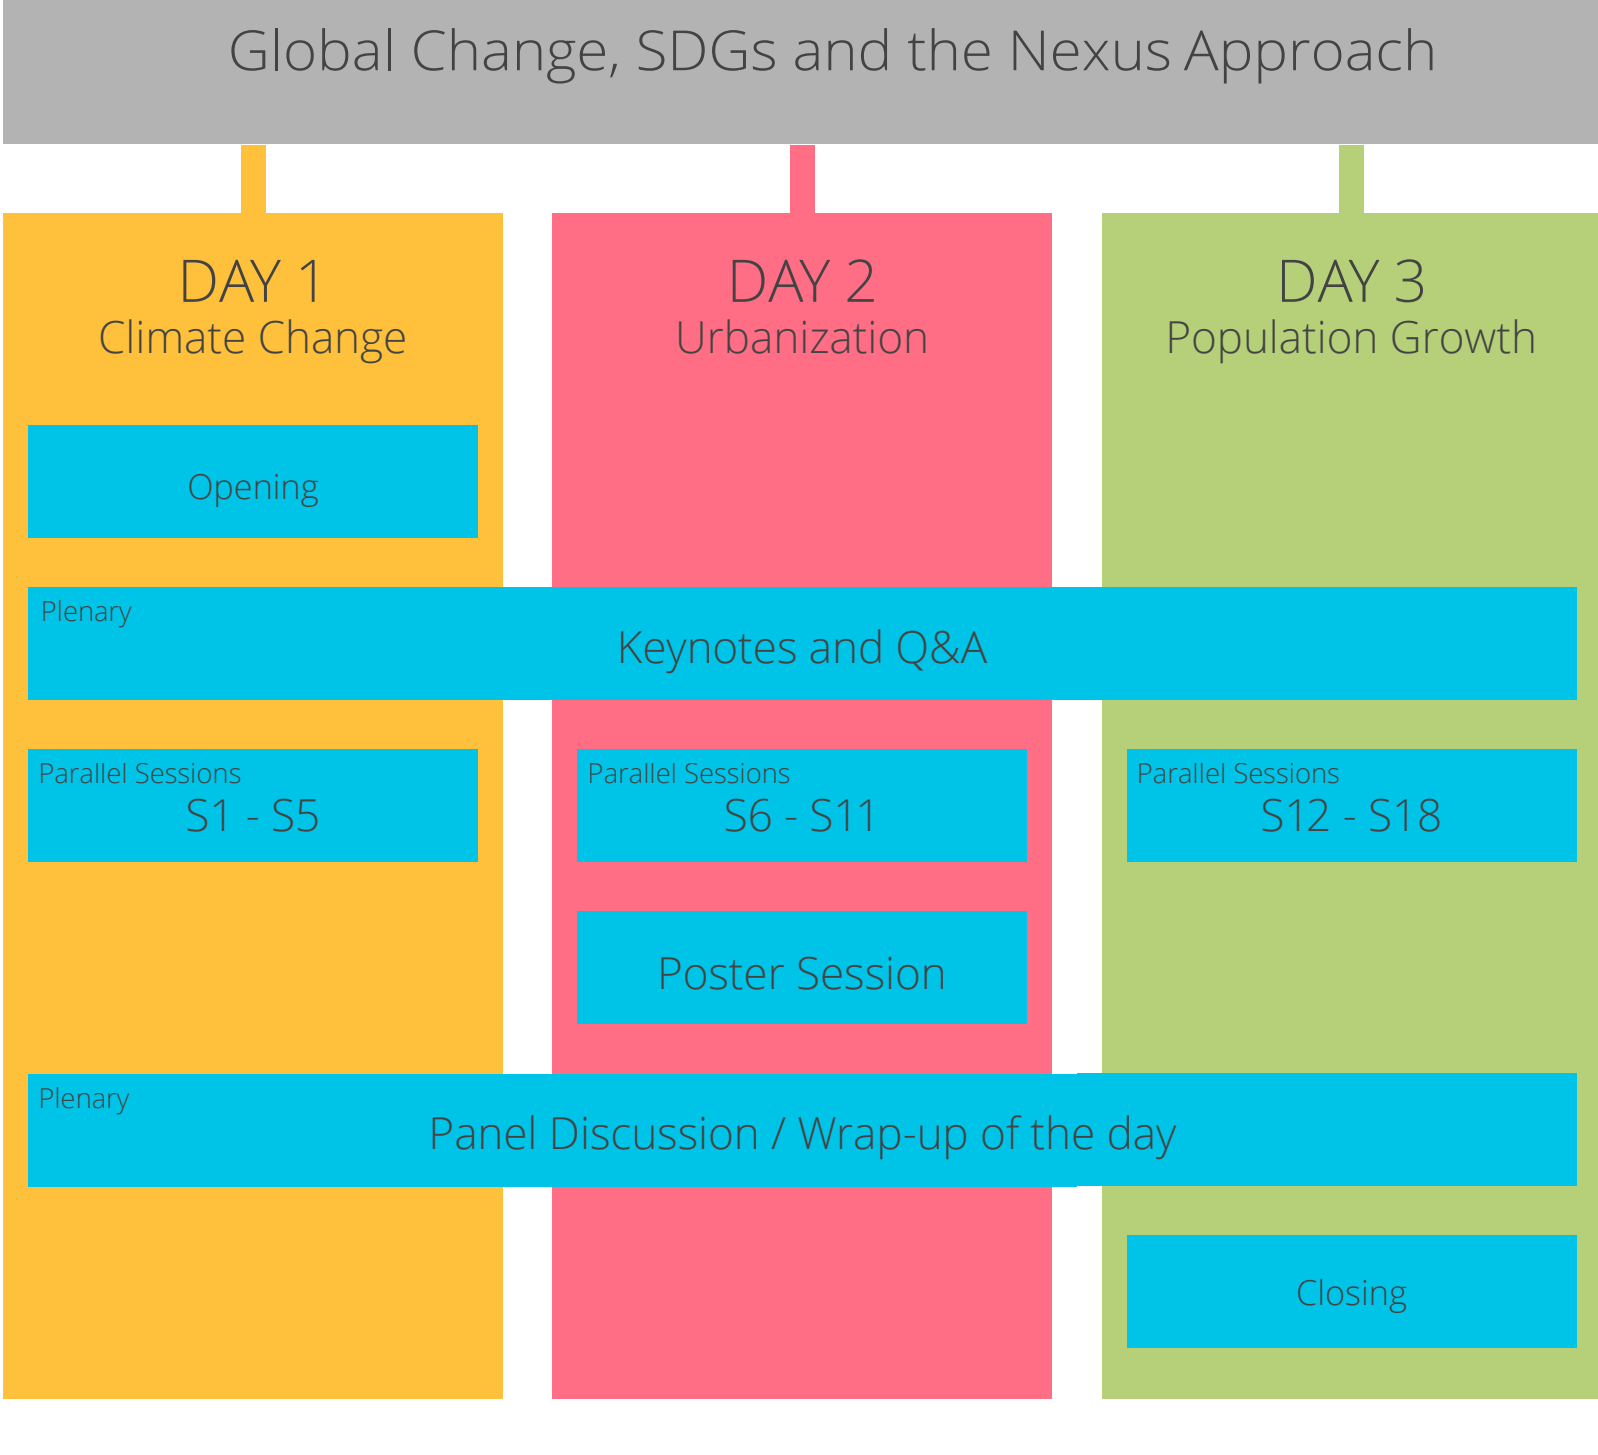

Background

As a follow up to the kick-off workshop on "Advancing a Nexus Approach to the Sustainable Management of Water, Soil and Waste", the first of the biennial Dresden Nexus conferences (DNC) will take place from 25-27 March 2015. The DNC2015 will assemble UN organizations, UNU institutes, member states, German ministries, national and international organizations as well as individual researchers and NGOs from around the world under the theme "Global Change, Sustainable Development Goals and the Nexus Approach".

The DNC 2015 will present three thematic topics over the course of three days; each day will deal with one aspect of global change: climate, urbanization and population growth. It will be discussed how the integrated management of environmental resources guided by nexus approach may help to achieve the potential targets of the post-2015 agenda.
